

DECEMBER

Calendar for December 1908 with dates 1-31.

FIFTEEN dead and 338 injured in the foot ball record for this season. Let the good work go on.

It is authoritatively stated that President-elect Taft has selected George W. Wickersham of the New York law firm of Strong & Cadwallader, to be Attorney General in his Cabinet.

We think Br'er Smith of Punxsutawney was the originator of the Knox idea for Premier of the Taft cabinet. And we claim to have "found" Smith to find Knox's Senatorial shoes. And we'd like to see it go that way.

SOME people are more unfortunate than others, remarks the Bradford Era. Ananias and his wife Saphira, are shining examples. Both dropped dead because they had lied. Other liars live to a ripe old age and find many lullible people who are willing always to believe them.

If Congress rebukes the President for criticizing it, there will be a long cable message of condolence from the German Emperor.—Franklin News.

No there, there will be a rippin' of intestines, and a scramble for tall timber by a whole lot of national legislators, you bet.

We agree with neighbor Smith of the Punxy Spirit that, if the present Legislature, which meets on the first Tuesday of January, does not make a conscientious effort to improve our primary election law, and also to simplify the ballot for general elections, it should be unceremoniously kicked out at the next election.

It is said that John D. Rockefeller will spend fifty million dollars in educational work in Oriental countries. This may not be true, but it is quite certain that a good many millions will yet be paid by him for educational purposes. It is a fortunate thing for the world that this millionaire does not board his money, allow foreign rakes to spend it for him, or waste it himself after the Taft fashion.—Franklin News.

Billionaire, you mean? And gee, what a saint our old friend John's getting to be!

SOME of the Congressmen, who appear anxious to spread some sort of rebuke or censure of the President on the records of the House and Senate, will have a merry time when it comes to explaining their action before their constituents.—Blizzard. Right you are. The people are with the President in this controversy, and if there are no guilty Congressman or Senators the secret service men can do them no harm. None but the guilty need fear the sleuths.

THERE is no doubt that the matter of declaring laws "unconstitutional" is carried to an absurd extreme in this country. A few energetic judges, attending strictly to business, may nullify the work of a whole session of an industrious legislative body in that way. In England no court can set aside a law of parliament. All the court wants to know is that such and such is the law. But here, with our writs "constitutions, we do not know whether a law is law or not until the various courts have all had a guess at it.—Punxy Spirit.

In his speech at New York, President-elect Taft said: "I believe the way to stamp out trusts and monopolies is not to stamp out protection, but to avoid excessive rates which tempt monopolies. On this plank in our platform we were successful, and unless we act in accordance with our promises, or if we only keep the word of promise to the ear and break it to the hope, we shall be made accountable to the American people and suffer such consequences as failure to keep faith has always been visited with. Better to have no vision at all unless we are going to honestly and favorably revise the tariff on the basis promised by our party."

On Friday, at Harrisburg, John H. Sanderson, contractor for the furnishing of the new state capitol; ex-Auditor General W. P. Snyder, ex-State Treasurer W. L. Mathews and ex-Superintendent of Public Grounds and Buildings James M. Shumaker, convicted of conspiring to defraud the state in the first of the cases growing out of the capitol scandal, were sentenced to two years in the penitentiary, $500 fine and costs, the maximum punishment allowed by law and after being in custody of the sheriff for seven hours, were released on $100,000 bail. Their attorneys appealed from the refusal of the judge to grant a new trial and his sentence to the superior court and that tribunal, sitting at Philadelphia, allowed a supersedeas. When the terms of the order staying the execution of the sentence was received bail was entered in the sum of $25,000 each for the defendants this bail to hold good until the superior court decides their fate.

In the official records of the greatest country on earth, says the Pittsburg Gazette Times,—In the written messages of a President of the United States, as long as printed pages are preserved to show the progress of the age, further generations of the United States will learn the expert judgment of the character, methods, purposes and deeds of Joseph Pulitzer. And what is this judgment, so expressed by the President that it can never be expunged or forgotten? That Pulitzer, through his newspaper, published certain articles concerning a great American national enterprise, touching the honor and integrity of distinguished citizens and public servants, which stories "were scurrilous and libellous in character and false in every essential particular." That the "known character of Mr. Pulitzer and his newspaper are such that the statements in that paper" should be believed by nobody. That the wickedness of these slanders is only surpassed by their fatuity. That the stories appear to have been concocted with a view of possible blackmail. That "they consist simply of a string of infamous libels." That the "real offender is Joseph Pulitzer, editor and proprietor of the World." That the "great injury done is in blackening the good name of the American people." That this "villifer of the American people" wantonly and wickedly seeks to blacken the character of reputable private citizens and to convict the Government of his own country in the eyes of the civilized world of wrong doing of the basest and foulest kind, when he has not one shadow of justification."

nally concocted with a view of possible blackmail. That "they consist simply of a string of infamous libels." That the "real offender is Joseph Pulitzer, editor and proprietor of the World." That the "great injury done is in blackening the good name of the American people." That this "villifer of the American people" wantonly and wickedly seeks to blacken the character of reputable private citizens and to convict the Government of his own country in the eyes of the civilized world of wrong doing of the basest and foulest kind, when he has not one shadow of justification."

THE acceptance of Senator P. C. Knox of the tender of the portfolio of Secretary of State in Mr. Taft's cabinet has perhaps pleased more people in the United States than any one thing that has happened in politics since the election of the Judge to the Presidency, and the only disappointing feature of the case is the fact that Pennsylvania and the country will lose the ablest member of the U. S. Senate that has occupied a seat in that body for many years. By this appointment another scramble will also be on in this State for the vacancy thus created in the Senate, and already a large list of aspirants has developed, among the ablest of which to our notion, is Congressman John Dalzell of Pittsburg, the home of Senator Knox. Other Pittsburg aspirants are Congressman J. F. Burke, George T. Oliver of the Gazette-Times, and the ever-ready William Flinn. The legislature will thus have two Senators to elect this winter, a condition which has not obtained in Pennsylvania in many generations if ever, but as Senator Knox will not resign till late in January or February the election of Senator Penrose to succeed himself, which is generally conceded, will have been disposed of.

Neighborhood Notes.

W. S. Gleason has been re-appointed for the third time postmaster at Johnsonburg, Elk county.

Titusville is booked for a new Federal building the coming summer. The site will be negotiated for in a short time.

Franklin is to have an armory for its National Guard company, at the cost of the State. The school board donated the lot.

The huge granite shaft to be erected by Warren County in memory of its dead soldiers and sailors, has arrived in Warren. No date has been selected for its dedication.

Rev. J. N. Fradenburgh, one of the ablest and best known men in the Erie Conference of the Methodist Church, has purchased a residence in Union City and will make that place his home in the future.

An action was instituted at Kittanning Tuesday, by C. M. Kelly, of Bruin, to recover $25,000 damages from R. L. Conroy, proprietor of the Parker Hotel at Parker, for the death of his son, Harry Kelly, aged 17 years. The plaintiff charges that the death of his son was the result of exposure and alcohol poisoning produced by drinking liquor sold by the defendant.—Emlenton News.

County Detective Hiram Brown and M. F. and J. P. Albert, State Fish Wardens, have caused the arrest of six Italians in Warren County, where they were caught in the act of dynamiting trout streams. When arraigned before an Alderman in Cherry Grove, which is 20 miles east of Warren, the defendants pleaded guilty. They could have been fined $125 and costs each, but that would have meant their going to jail, so they were released upon paying $100 and costs for the entire six.

At Smethport, McKean county, on Friday morning, Judge Bouton instructed the jury in the Anna Peeler murder trial to return a verdict of "not guilty." The jury acted in accordance with the instructions of the court, and Judge Bouton received the verdict and ordered Miss Peeler discharged. The court stated that in his opinion the commonwealth had failed to produce evidence sufficient to cause a conviction on the charge of murder. The woman was charged with shooting to death Roy Warner, a barber, of Bradford, of whom she was generally known as his "common law wife."

Notice--Stockholders' Meeting.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Tionesta Water Supply Co. will be held at the company's office in the Borough of Tionesta, Pa., on Monday, Jan. 4, 1909, at 2 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of electing directors for the year and the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the meeting.

Mistakes of Drug Clerks.

"There is one loss sustained by druggists that very few people know about," said the experienced clerk. "That is in the prescriptions that have to be made over, the same as clerks, stenographers, writers and artists, no matter how painstaking, frequently have to do their work over. The most careful drug clerk in existence is bound to make mistakes sometimes in measuring and mixing. "He may pour in too much of some kind of liquid or sift in too much of a certain powder. In most cases the overdose would not really affect the value of the medicine, but the conscientious clerk isn't going to take any chances of murdering anybody, so he throws away the whole mixture and makes up another prescription."

"Try One of My Betels."

In Siam they don't offer you a cigar or a cigarette, but a betel nut. There every one carries a supply of them in a neat little ivory box, not unlike the snuffboxes of our ancestors. The betel nut is a narcotic, in its effects not unlike tobacco, but it is much more harmful. Those who chew it suffer from inflamed gums, and they generally lose their teeth. The betel is a species of climbing plant, with a leaf not unlike ivy. It yields a crop of nuts, which are ground to a powder. This is mixed with a similar powder derived from the areca nut and made into a paste, which is wrapped in pieces of betel leaf.

An Amendment.

Mrs. Menuthing-Henry, I have to write a paper for my class on "The Woman Who Believes in Love." Have you any suggestions to make? Mr. Menuthing-Well, I don't know. You might make it "heart" instead of "lost."—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Porkey.

The past week has been a very busy one for the ladies of our town, as most of them were in Warren doing their Christmas shopping.

The dwellings being built up Porkey run by the Pennsylvania Gas Company are about completed. We understand the buildings are very nicely finished to be built so far in the woods, it being three miles from any other dwelling place. It still remains a mystery who will be the lucky occupants.

Mrs. O. E. Rupert and daughter Virginia visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bloss, at Sheffield, the past week.

G. H. Blum visited his family here over Sunday.

Sara Gillespie gladdened the hearts of the Sunday school children by giving them a Christmas treat Sunday-morning, after school.

Mr. Kunselman of Mayburg called on E. T. Downey, Sunday.

The new company up Porkey run is on top of the sand with a good showing of gas, this being the second well drilled. The first well proved to be a duster.

James Welsh, Sr. visited his daughter, Mrs. James McMichael, at Sheffield, a few days the past week.

Bertha Jordan of Hastings is assisting Mrs. John Littlefield in her household duties. Mrs. Littlefield, who has been suffering for the past two weeks with asthma, is no better at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. John Thornton of Gusher passed through town Sunday to visit the latter's brother, Wilbur Miller, of Kellewille, who is dangerously ill.

Lois Welsh of Sheffield visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Welsh, over Sunday, returning Monday morning.

Mrs. John Stover visited her sister, Mrs. Littlefield, Sunday afternoon.

R. W. Whitehill made two business trips to Sheffield the past week. We are unable to say whether it was mercantile business or not.

Sara Gillespie entertained Mrs. John Jordan, Mrs. Edward Pratt and Mrs. Muter Jordan of Hastings, Wednesday, between trains.

Fred R. Kinestiver of Nebraska was in town Tuesday on business.

Mrs. Wm. Slocum was shopping in Sheffield last Friday.

Go to Asia.

Since Russia's defeat by Japan the other side of the globe has become the world's chief news center. All Asia is now in a turmoil of unrest and the air is full of rumors of war.

To give its readers the truth about the movements which are going on in that country, Frank G. Carpenter, the correspondent of The Pittsburg Dispatch, who is known the world over as one of the most interesting newspaper writers of this age, has been sent to Asia, and commencing the first Sunday in the new year his illustrated articles will appear every Sunday in The Dispatch.

Mr. Carpenter has already left the United States and is now traveling in Japan. From there he will make his way northward into Korea and thence overland through Manchuria to China. He will spend some time in Seoul and Mukden and going on by rail to Peking will traverse a great part of the Chinese Empire. Later on he may make his way through Siam, Burmah, Hindustan, Palestine and Turkey.

No one who hopes to keep abreast with the times can afford to miss these letters. Leave your order with your newsdealer and be sure that he delivers you The Dispatch every Sunday.

SHERIFF'S SALE.
